

COMMITMENT LETTER OF APPLICANT

As a candidate for the Diploma in management, engineering and sciences for the resilience to disasters, to be held between November and December 2019 by the University of Chile:

I

From

I declare that all information presented is truthful, correct and complete and in case of obtaining the scholarship, I undertake to respect the following rules:

- a) Rigorously comply with the programme.
- b) Accept all of the conditions stipulated by the Programme.
- c) Respect the instructions of the programme.
- d) Not prolong the training period established by the University of Chile/AGCID. At the end of the Diploma, return to my country of origin in accordance with the agenda established by University of Chile/AGCID.
- e) Not participate in the programme in the event of illness or pregnancy if I have been advised not to.
- f) Submit a medical certificate that certifies good physical and mental health compatible with the Diploma.
- g) Not interrupt the Diploma except in case of a serious ailment that renders me unable to continue the training.
- h) Have no order or case of a judicial nature that may impede my leaving the country or entering Chile.
- i) Have the necessary international documentation to enter and leave Chile, according to bilateral agreements between Governments, throughout the period of the diploma, including the travel dates determined by the scholarship.
- j) On return to my employer, to execute the knowledge transfer activities and undertake the completion of the Project needed for the completion of the Programme.
- k) In case of withdrawal from participating in the Diploma, after being selected to participate, communicate to the Focal point of AGCID within a minimum of 10 days prior to the commencement of the programme, indicating the reasons of force majeure that necessitate the decision.

,  of  of the  year

---

Signature of the applicant