About the Co-Organizer	Academy for International Business Officials (AIBO, also known as Training Center of the Ministry of Commerce), is the only educational and training institution directly affiliated to the Ministry of Commerce (MOFCOM), People's Republic of China.

Situated in the famous Xiaotangshan Longmai hot spring area, Changping District, on the riverside of Wenyu River which is reputed as the mother river of Beijing, AIBO boasts a history of 41 years. Covering an area of nearly 600 mu (about 40 hectares) with the total floor area of over 100,000 m<sup>2</sup>, it enjoys beautiful environment and fresh air and has all necessary facilities. Besides, it is conveniently connected to the city's transportation networks.

AIBO provides training, academic teaching, conference service as well as holiday service. It has meeting rooms (including VIP rooms) of various sizes. AIBO's hotel is well-furnished and provides all necessary facilities.

AIBO is the first to organize seminars for government business officials from other developing countries starting from 1998. Now seminars it organizes cover a large range of topics such as economic administration, trade and investment, city planning and administration, telecommunication, transportation, construction of development zones, logistic management, development of natural resources, international labor cooperation, coordinated development of urban and rural areas, wireless communication and digital TV technology, clean energy, etc. Apart from the seminars for officials at director's level or director general's level, AIBO has also organized many ministerial workshops.

By the end of 2022, AIBO has hosted a total of 2008 training courses/seminars for officials from developing countries, including 124 seminars for officials at ministerial-level, and received 58,632 officials from more than 160 countries and regions in the world, including 5 officials at the vice national-level and 1070 officials at the ministerial-level.

AIBO will strive to make new contributions to the development of China's commerce and develop into a well-known educational and training institution both at home and abroad.

The Center for International Agricultural Research(CIAR) of the Chinese Academy of Agricultural Sciences, was established in 2016. It is one of the first batch of agricultural foreign cooperation technology support and talent training bases recognized by the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Affairs. CIAR is a national public platform for CAAS to serve the "going global" of agricultural science and technology. Centering on the "the Belt and Road" strategic and the needs of national agricultural foreign cooperation, it integrates the advantageous scientific and technological resources and experts of CAAS, comprehensively strengthens the support of overseas agricultural information and talents, and has successively built workshops for agricultural policy researchers in developing countries along the "the Belt and Road" and Latin America, Africa, etc., such as the CICA and APEC seminars, which has enhanced mutual understanding among developing countries and promote win-win cooperation.

Since its establishment in 2016, CIAR has invited officials and experts from domestic and

	foreign research institutions, and enterprises such as FAO, UNDP, IFAD, the World Bank, the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Affairs, the National Development Bank, the Chinese Academy of Sciences, to conduct training and discussions on topics related to the global and Chinese food security situation, smart agriculture, scientific and technological innovation, China's agricultural transformation and development, international agricultural cooperation and opportunities for value chain development and cooperation under the framework of South-South cooperation. As an important output of the training courses, CIAR has successively signed cooperation agreements with multinational research institutions in advanced intelligent training, market information analysis, data construction and sharing, etc. In addition, a series of training sessions promoted the collaborative networks such as smart agriculture, agricultural value chain development, and agricultural data sharing alliances, strengthening regional and bilateral cooperations.
Training Course Content	Purpose: Participants will be able to understand China's food security strategy and learn about China's advanced technological achievements and management experience in grain loss reduction, quality assurance, quality and nutrition maintenance, modern harvesting, storage and logistics, monitoring and early warning, value-added processing and comprehensive utilization. Through the training, participants will be able to make recommendations on how to promote food loss reduction and high-value utilization of by-products in their own countries based on what they have learned based on the current development of the agricultural processing industry in their own countries. Content: This seminar includes two parts: Overview of China's national conditions, current macroeconomic situation and policy directions, rural and agricultural development under reform, the Belt and Road Initiative and implementation measures, and introduction to China's experience in poverty alleviation and rural revitalization, Overview of China's national conditions, current macroeconomic situation and policy directions, rural and agricultural development under reform, the Belt and Road Initiative and implementation measures, and introduction to China's experience in poverty alleviation and rural revitalization. etc. The seminar officials will also carry out field trips, visit local enterprises, and have discussions with local government officials and business leaders to learn more about China's development assistance experience. The above is the preliminary schedule, the final version will be provided upon your arrival in China. Notes. 1、 Please prepare your passport, Chinese visa and third-party transit country visa (if necessary) before coming to China.
