About the Organizer	The Academy for International Business Officials (AIBO) is an educational and training institution directly under the Ministry of Commerce of the People's Republic of China. Established in 1980, AIBO is located in Changping District, Beijing, about 30 kilometers from Beijing Capital International Airport. It boasts comprehensive infrastructure to provide services such as accommodation, catering, training and meetings for trainees. One of the main responsibilities of AIBO is to implement human resources development and cooperation projects, especially training courses for officials. The Academy serves as the main base for China's foreign aid training, offering both off-line and on-line training in China and overseas. Backed by the Ministry of Commerce and in close cooperation with China's top think tanks, research institutes and universities, AIBO brings together a large number of China's top experts and scholars to provide intellectual support for foreign aid training. It has developed a number of high-quality foreign aid training projects in the fields of trade and investment, international economic cooperation, governance and public management, which have proved to be fruitful. Since 1998, AIBO has successfully held over 2,000 training sessions for officials from developing countries (including 124 ministerial seminars), benefiting nearly 59,000 participants from other developing countries around the world. AIBO will adhere to the guidance of Xi Jinping Thought on Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era, and take the important concepts, including a community with a shared future for mankind, pursuing the greater good and shared interests, and sincerity, real results, amity, good faith, mutual benefit and inclusiveness, as strategic guidance and fundamental principles to be followed. It will facilitate the joint efforts in implementing major initiatives such as the "the Belt and Road" Initiative and the Global Development Initiative, and continue to help developing countries accelerate their development by sharing China's experience and programs.
About the Seminar	Background: Industrialization is the path to a country's economic development. Goal 8 of the United Nations 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development is to "promote sustained, inclusive and sustainable economic growth, full and productive employment and decent work for all". The global community has thrown the sight upon inclusive and sustainable industrial development and thinking about how industry can play a key role in driving the world's economic growth and achieving sustainable development. Purpose: China's Global Development Initiatives are closely aligned with the needs of developing countries. China has been worked together with other developing countries to address global challenges, giving a strong impetus to accelerate the industrialization of developing countries. China has been actively contributing to the acceleration of the global industrialization process and is willing to share its experience of high-quality industrial economic development with other

	developing countries. This Seminar aims to help developing countries cultivate talents in the field of industrial economy, improve the capacity and level of industrial economic development, and promote the building of a community of a shared future for global development. Content: The topics of the Seminar mainly includes the overview of China's national conditions, Chinese leaders' philosophy of governance, common values of China and the world, China's experience of reform and opening-up and economic development, industrial Internet and artificial intelligence, industrial digitalization and industrial economy, investment and financing promotion and industrial opportunities, global industrial chain restructuring and industrial development, industrial innovation drive and modern production, business environment for rural industrial enterprises, etc. Modes: Experts in China's industrial economy and related fields are invited to give lectures on various topics; exchanges and discussions are organized between participants and experts and among participants; field trips are arranged to visit industrial economy-related enterprises in Beijing and other city/cities. (The above is based on the preliminary schedule, and may be adjusted according to the actual situation. The final version will be provided upon arrival in China.)
Notes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Please prepare your passport, Chinese visa and third-party transit country visa (if necessary) before coming to China. 2. If participants cannot depart on time due to special circumstances, or if there is a flight delay during the transfer, please contact the Economic and Trade Office or the organizer in time, inform the latest flight No. and time of arrival in Beijing so that we can arrange pick-up for you. 3. In principle, it is not allowed for individuals to change their tickets to China. If you really need to do so, please contact the Office and follow the procedures to change your ticket. Participants who change their tickets without consent will be notified to the Chinese embassy and the costs and responsibilities therefore incurred shall be borne by yourself. 4. After picking up the luggage, please wait patiently at the international arrival exit (or domestic arrival exit) and the organizer will pick you up with a pick-up board with your name on it. If waiting for more than 15 minutes, you can communicate with the organizer by phone. 5. In case of lost baggage so you need to register the loss procedure with the airline, please first communicate with the organizer to confirm the baggage delivery location and then fill in the registration form. 6.
