

2019 Seminar for Financial Cooperation Between Developing Countries Project Description

Name	Seminar for Financial Cooperation Between Developing Countries
Organizer	Renmin University of China
Time	16 October. -5 November.	Language	English
Invited Countries	Economic officials in developing countries
Number of Participants	20
Requirements for the Participants	Age	Not older than 45 for directors or below and 50 for director-generals
	Health	In good health with health certificate issued by the local public hospitals; without diseases with which entry to China is disallowed by China's laws and regulations; without severe chronic diseases such as serious high blood pressure, cardiovascular/cerebrovascular diseases and diabetes; without metal diseases or epidemic diseases that are likely to cause serious threat to public health; not in the process of recovering after a major operation or in the process of acute diseases; not seriously disabled or pregnant.
	Teaching Language	Capable of listening, speaking, reading and writing in English.
	Others	Spouse and family are not allowed to follow the participant to China for training.
Host City	Beijing	Local Temperature	Autumn: 2°C-15°C
Cities to visit	Guangzhou, Guangdong Foshan	Local Temperature	Guangzhou: 21°C- 28°C Foshan: 22°C- 27°C
Notes	/
Contact of the Organizer	Contact Person(s)	Gongsangwangmu
	Telephone	0086-10-82509081
	Cell	0086-18618248091
	Fax	0086-10-62511102
	E-mail	nxwangmu@163.com

About the Organizer	Renmin University of China (RUC, also known as People’s University of China) is a key university in China. Its strengths lie in the humanities and social sciences; however, the university also embraces disciplines in the area of natural sciences. RUC is a comprehensive research-orientated university. It was established in 1937, during the resistance war against Japanese aggression. The university acquired its present name on October 3, 1950, which made it the first one to be established by the newly founded People’s Republic of China. Since its establishment, RUC students and teachers have always endeavored to carry out its undoubtedly conviction to “unceasingly strive to be always in the vanguard”. RUC shares a common fate with the Party and the nation. Through prudence, dedicated effort, active and practical exploration, it has become an important teaching and research base in the areas of the humanities, social sciences, and management science in China. The RUC is regarded as “A Standard in Humanities and Social Sciences in China’s Higher Education”. RUC has accumulated much experience since it first held seminars for officials from all over the world. From 2001, 38 training programs have been conducted and 951 senior economic officials, scholars as well as entrepreneurs have taken classes here. Mr. Mohamed Said Fofana who attended the seminar in 2006 was appointed as Premier of the Republic of Guinea in September 2010. Having finished seminars in 2002, Mr. Jorge Hidalgo Guerrero was appointed as Counsel General of the Republic of Ecuador in April 2009. School of Economics is aiming at becoming the first-rate institute according to international assessment standards. Therefore, it will be striving to achieve this goal through its consistent commitment to attracting and retaining top-ranked staff, to maintaining high teaching and research quality, to staying at the forefront of the discipline, and to creating a flourishing and stimulating research environment for staff and students.
Seminar / Training Course Content	019 Seminar for Financial Cooperation Between Developing Countries is sponsored by the Ministry of Commerce of People’s Republic of China and undertaken by Renmin University of China (RUC). The seminar has arranged classical courses, presentations, inspections and visits for officials of developing countries. The Seminar lasts for 21 days, and 14 lectures will be delivered, covering basic, core, professional together with exploratory courses. Basic courses include: Fundamental Realities of China, Review of China’s Economic Opening, China’s Development of Foreign Trade, Development and Prospect of China’s Investment in Foreign Countries. Core courses: Development of China’s Financial System, Management of China’s Foreign Exchange, Management of Banks in China, Studies on Experience and Situation of how China Attracts FDI. Professional courses: China’s Concessional Loan Business, Construction of China’s Free Trade Area and Financial Opening, Introduction of New Multilateral Development Organizations and the Silk Road Fund, China’s Business Work and Foreign Aid. Exploratory: Appreciation of Traditional Chinese Culture, Policies and Practices of Foreign Trade and Investment in Local Governments, etc. All the lectures echo with the core of the seminar and are internally correlated. The lectures, from different perspectives, introducing the foundation, potential, mode and prospect of China’s financial cooperation with other countries, covering both theoretical and practical knowledge, macroscopically and microscopically. Apart from the lectures, exchange of national conditions amongst different countries will be held twice, which targets at making officials better understand their own country’s economic development status and foreign trade situation. Chances to communicate with RUC students will also be provided so as to initiate mutual understanding.