MALAYSIAN TECHNICAL COOPERATION PROGRAMME (MTCP)

The Malaysian Technical Cooperation Programme (MTCP) was officially launched on 7 September 1980 at the Commonwealth Heads of State Meeting in New Delhi, India, to signify Malaysia's commitment to the South-South Cooperation, in particular, the Technical Cooperation among Developing Countries (TCDC).

The MTCP emphasizes on the development of human resources through the provision of trainings in various areas which are essential for a country's development such as the public administration, good governance, health services, education, agriculture, sustainable development, poverty alleviation, investment promotion, ICT and banking. Annually, Malaysia offered more than 65 technical and capacity-building programmes under the MTCP, which have benefited more than 34,000 participants from 144 countries.

OBJECTIVES OF MTCP

- I. To share the development experience with other countries;
- II. To strengthen bilateral relations between Malaysia and other developing countries;
- III. To promote South-South Cooperation (SSC); and
- IV. To promote the technical cooperation among Developing Countries

BACKGROUND OF TRAINING INSTITUTION

The Institute of Teacher Education, International Languages Campus (Institut Pendidikan Guru, Kampus Bahasa Antarabangsa or IPGKBA), located at Lembah Pantai in Kuala Lumpur, is one of twenty-seven teacher education institutes under the administration of the Institute of Teacher Education, the Ministry of Education. IPGKBA provides training and accreditation for both pre- and in-service teachers pursuing diploma and degree level qualifications in the teaching and learning of English. Second Language.

In addition, IPGKBA in its expanding role provides courses for the teaching and learning of other international languages such as French, Japanese, German and Korea. Recognising the growing demand for these international languages at the local and regional levels, IPGKBA also offers language courses for government and private sector clientele, including non-teaching personnel. IPGKBA has been conducting MTCP courses since 2001 and to date a total of 58 short courses has been conducted for 904 participants from various MTCP participating countries.

COURSE OVERVIEW

Many practicing teachers and educators will find the need to enhance their classroom skills, especially after some years at the chalkface. This course is designed and customized to provide participants with an overview of three specific areas of classroom skills: facilitation, delivery modes and cooperative learning skills. The teachers' command of English, especially in their instruction, needs to be improved so that they in turn would be able to transmit appropriate English usage to their students. Thus, it is pertinent that the instructional language used by teachers are appropriate for the students. This training will be conducted by experts in the field of TESL and Pedagogy in Education from IPGKBA. This programme will be held using an online approach according to the current new normal.
