Special Training Programme for Judges in Judgment Writing & Judicial Ethics, Management and Leadership

26 September 2022 – 30 September 2022

Course Objective & Pedagogy

The training programme for Judges has been designed to provide a multiple angle refresher in Judgment Writing & Judicial Ethics, Management and Leadership. The University understands that Judges in any part od the world, do understand and practice these dimensions. But, like every other subject-matter, it is important to once in a while revisit them to refresh one's viewpoint or even generate new ones.

The University also acknowledges the busy schedule Judges have and it would not be feasible to place an elaborate schedule for the course. Therefore, in just five days, ten topics have been identified which touch upon the traditional and the contemporary in the training areas. Participating Judges will surely benefit from the highly specialized resource persons who will we administering these sessions – from Judges of Indian Courts to Expert Legal Academics.

The sessions will follow a pedagogy of lecture and discussion, designed to allow an interactive engagement for better analytical and critical understanding of the topics. It is with this aim that each session is set for a duration of one and a half hours, with the last fifteen minutes devoted to questions and answers.

Target Audience:

The course is designed to meet the professional needs of judges and judicial officers.

Eligibility:

a) Bachelor's degree in Law;
b) Minimum age of 25 years;

PROGRAMME STRUCTURE

The 5-day special training programme is made up of 10 lectures of which 2 lectures will be held from 26th to 30th of September, 2022. The lectures will provide an in-depth understanding for participants on each topic.
